Sweet spring
Full of sweet days
And roses
A box where sweets
Compacted lie
My music shows ye
Have your closes
And all must due
Only a sweet and virtuous soul
Like season's timber
Never gives
But though the whole world
Turn to coal
Then chiefly lives

How do I love thee?
Let me count the ways
I love thee to the depth and Breadth and height
My soul can reach
When feeling out of sight
For the ends of Being
And ideal Grace
I love thee to the level of Every day's
Most quiet need
By sun and candlelight

I love thee freely, as men strive for Right
I love thee purely, as they turn from Praise
I love with a passion put to use
In my old griefs, and with my childhood's faith
I love thee with a love I seemed to lose
With my lost saints, I love thee with the breath
Smiles, tears, of all my life
And, if God choose,
I shall but love thee better after death

May they give you gifts that never Ever and someone wonderful to love
And a dear friend in Whom you can believe
May you have rainbows after every storm
May you have hopes to keep you safe and warm
And may you always
Have an angel by your side

BOSHIMMER

Sleep is map of glass
No matter where it leads
You are lost
The night may speak to you
with its wings
Its songs made of silk
Yet you know only your dreams
